

PACKING LIST

Idyllwild is located in the San Jacinto Mountains in Riverside County. At 5,400 feet, Idyllwild sees a big range of temperatures in spring. During RYLA, we've seen it snow, and it's been in the 80s. Dressing in layers is our best advice.

Wear clothes that allow you to be active and comfortable. You'll be sitting on the ground, hiking and participating in games involving running and jumping.

- A positive attitude and sense of humor
- Sleeping bag or sheet and blankets (dorms are heated) and a pillow.
Camp beds have mattresses only.
- Toothbrush, toothpaste, soap, shampoo and other personal hygiene items.
- Sunscreen, lotion and chapstick (it's very dry in the mountains)
- Prescription medication(s) (must be listed on your application)
- Bath and hand towels
- Walking shoes (soles with good traction). No sandals or open toed shoes.
- Long pants/jeans
- Short sleeved t-shirts
- Sweatshirts/sweaters
- Winter jacket, gloves and a hat
- Underwear and socks
- Lightweight flashlight with fresh batteries
- Phone and charger
- Umbrella (if rain is in the forecast)

We'll provide ...

- Water bottle
- Day pack
- Pens
- Snacks

What not to wear ...

- Please leave your tank tops, sheer fabrics, tight fitting clothes, short shorts and other revealing attire at home.